To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Stephen Deitsch; I am an attorney with the law firm of Deitsch and Wright, P.A., which I started along with my partner Kerri Wright, in 2002. Our firm practices in the areas of personal injury and insurance litigation. Over the last several years we have handled numerous matters involving claims or lawsuits against homeowner's and business insurance. During that time, our firm has frequently worked with Mr. Edward Reynolds. This letter may serve both as a letter of recommendation for his services and a verification of the value of any services he may have already rendered.

I believe Mr. Reynolds to be an asset to any insurance recovery efforts, and if used correctly a vital asset. He is experienced, knowledgeable, ethical, and professional. I would recommend him to anyone seeking an expert in the fields of insurance, loss, and remediation.

Mr. Reynolds and I have worked together for more than 4 years, on numerous insurance matters. My firm employs him, as an independent contractor providing consultancy services in the areas of insured losses, remediation, repair, and contracting. Mr. Reynolds frequently advises our firm on individual losses and, in a general sense, the management and handling of losses.

Mr. Reynolds knowledge of his trade is expansive. He is my "go-to" person for virtually any questions relating to insured losses, their scope, and their cost of repair. One of the reasons I prefer to work with Mr. Reynolds as he neither inflates the scope or cost of repairs, making matters in which he is involved, much easier to resolve, at least as compared to some other loss consultants I have used.

Mr. Reynolds has proved himself to be a consummate professional in the conduct of his business. I have found him to be honest (sometimes brutally so) and ethical. He has repeatedly demonstrated he will not compromise his integrity or his professional opinion for anyone, and as such I have come to rely on his opinions greatly.

Additionally, while he is personally affable and pleasant, he takes a very serious attitude towards his responsibilities. I have seen him exhibit a tireless work ethic and commitment to his business. I am confident that when Mr. Reynolds is a consultant on any of my matters, they will be done professionally, timely, and accurately. Should you have any questions or concerns regarding Mr. Reynolds, please feel free to contact me at (561) 376-5650 your convenience.

Sincerely,

Stephen D. Deitsch
